

Forum Da Vinci

Urban symbol punctuating the rhythm of Boulevard Grande-Duchesse Charlotte the Forum da Vinci, opened in 2011 and strategically located in the heart of the city centre, is the seat of the Association of Engineers, Architects, Scientists and Industrials (da Vinci asbl) and the Luxembourg Order of Architects and Consulting Engineers (OAI).

The da Vinci conference room, the meeting place, presents a unique setting of 170 m² with a capacity up to 180 seats and offers a perspective effect from the street to the green garden backyard. It is fully technically equipped and can be made available for events of various kinds that are related to the development of engineering, architecture, technology, research, innovation and design which are the subjects of the house community (conferences, roundtables, seminars, general meetings, presentations of products, exhibitions, etc.). Connected, a gallery-bar can also display a smaller exhibition.

On the first floor, 2 meeting rooms can be provided for training, seminars or meetings (max. 20 pers.).
