

Arendt House

Boardroom - Ample space for your large meetings. This boardroom on the ground floor of the Arendt House building is suitable for large-scale meetings, small conferences and seminars. It is equipped with new integrated technology to ensure that meetings take place in optimum conditions.

Auditorium - A unique conference venue on the Kirchberg plateau. This conference hall is located in the Arendt House building. Along with its wood finishings and plush atmosphere interspersed with bright colours, it offers versatile seating arrangements which can accommodate from 180 to 280 persons depending on the configuration which you choose for your events.
